

Prince Michael of Kent (above). Cilla Black with Roger Moore and his partner Kiki Tholstrup (above right). Comedian Rory Bremner (below)

'A NIGHT UNDER THE STARS'

An enthusiastic Rory Bremner compered A Night Under The Stars. The evening of music and comedy at St John's Smith Square was held in aid of the largest day centre for homeless people, The Passage in Victoria, which cares for 350 people.

Following a cocktail party in the splendour of the Speaker's House at the House of Commons, some of Britain's brightest musical talents entertained the 800 guests.

But even guest of honour Prince Michael of Kent was having difficulty concentrating on the music because of Rory's brilliant satirical caricatures. One of his targets, Michael Portillo, just happened to be in the audience. Others who came in for a ribbing included Prime Minister Tony Blair and Conservative Party leader Iain Duncan Smith.

Carol Thatcher and Mrs Frederick Forsyth (above).
The Duke and Duchess of Calabria (below)

PHOTOS: DOMINIC O'NEILL

Geoffrey Moore with partner Lulu Hainsworth and his sister Deborah (above). Sir Donald Sinden (below left). Michael Portillo (below right) ►

