

Orders hold Westminster Cathedral investiture ceremony

A Royal Investiture of new knights, dames and medalists of the British and Irish Delegation of the Constantinian Order of St George and the Royal Order of Francis I has been held at Westminster Cathedral.

The ceremony was presided over by the Grand Master of the Constantinian Order of St George, HRH Prince Carlo of Bourbon Two Sicilies, Duke of Castro.

Mass was celebrated by the Grand Prior of the Constantinian Order, Cardinal Renato Raffaele, president emeritus of the Pontifical Councils of Justice and Peace and for the Pastoral Care of Migrants and Itinerants. The Archbishop of Cardiff George Stack concelebrated Mass with the cardinal.

More than 500 guests were in attendance, including more than 60 knights, dames and medalists.

Among them were Rory More O'Ferrall, Baroness Scotland of Asthal QC, Sir David and Lady Durie, Jim Dobbin MP, The Dowager Marchioness of Salisbury, Brigadier Tom Ogilvie-Graham, Don Riccardo Tomacelli Filomarino, Don Cristoforo Rocco di Torrepadula and Lord and Lady Brennan of Bibury.

